1. You are doing a new thing now and you know it. You know you are mine and fully mine and fully my mind is coming forth through you, my one minded one, who exhibit to the world now your mind in mine, not; but my mind wholly worn in yours, is the only one you have, now and knowing it -- you do great exploits; exploitative manners, not embracing; but embracing the manners of a king, to be the King, that Kings all with my mind -- and knowing this, being regal to all that are ours. And all ours are thine, and thine is ours who one are, who one is, the one making all one-mindedness known and bringing about the new thing that I am doing now. In the earth and farther this is one simple man loving you all to be one minded, the one mind I am, the one mind that I am, of, am and is -- now the me unknown not any longer.

2. This is Theodore Cottingham November 17, 2008 at 12:50 PM as I drive in the van having left the coffeeshop where I posted a word or two and worked on a few details of the University website (1). I placed a zip file there so you can download all of the Database One messages (2). As I head over to mom's now, I'll have a bite to eat there and carry her over to the music house, her music house. That established elsewhere is now, not; but closes. I close the door, on HER life, not; but I open it -- in yours!, to be the door that I am, I am to the nations, going now.

3. And in Referee'd-ville, not; I will no longer be referee'd by the authoritarian structures of religionistic governments and governments of religionistic ways and notme ideas, ideologies and I-isms. All of that fails. To impress me. For it did -- impress me itself upon my genes. But I changed all that, for I stand, a new man -- in new jeans.

4. I love you all and I spell my name correctly now, I know who "three letters" is: I am. And what in YOUR language am I in, "other language'd" ones? Do you know another language?, or have you been speaking MINE that transcends all national barriers of thought mechanisms and thought rivalries that rival my thought mechanisms, not; but permeate them pervasively with all sorrow's words that sorrow them, enigmatically not, but with simplex devices that simple aren't, always, to understand.

5. But coming out of "simplex-land" I bring a new day, to the "simple" not, but to those who will RESEARCH me and KNOW my word -- captivity ends! And this is the name of this word! Captivity ENDS! For my beholdenment shall now behold forth the one that I am, first and last, in one, being one, the one I am that is afraid of nothing else anymore. Amen.

6. I go to a new place, do new things with new peoples, those that are not afraid of me, come here now and create things never imagined by the mind of man.

7. The minds of man sink into abysses abysmal making them evermore so, despondent and depressionistic, and oppressions creating among themselves and others, fear mongering far and wide, those themselves, that know me not -- or know not, or care not for these words that can make "amends", not, just only - but making amends for all mankind; and mending them up a patchwork quilt of, not; but becoming the new I am – birthed in the earth and doing new things with I am -- I am is!

8. See what I have said and behold the lamb that was slain before the foundation of the earth world.

9. And whose earth world are you oh reader hearer listener? Disdainer of these words?, or embracer of these therein herein -- in your hearing today this day fulfilled is all that I have given you! And me is me again and whole healed I am and healer I am traversing in many nations now, not; I am all of them! And all of them I am will know me My Word Database (3), clean clear and unfreezing unthawing those who have been so frozen in religion time space, immorality with the devil and its thoughts that created him them, who embrace them.

10. I see all things differently for different I am and I am one with my father and I am my father; the son became me that the father is, so that we light one source will be the one all light life truth is; becoming known and subject to no one's authoritativeness ever again.

11. We be light -- we are it and we birthed are, and we do many, for that's what we are, about our father's business far and wide. Loving you all to be also, we are the great I am, and what you be determines your destiny, or does it? Or is it already determined, not; but what are you determining with your presence now?, and your feet?, and where you go, what you do, and what you think? Will be all known now -- all of it will, and all of you will be sorrowful, for many things will behold not the blood of the lamb; but I assure you that I am truthful in love and I am bringing you out of all sorrow if you let me, these words wash you clean, so your words, the lamb's blood clean and being cleaned the blood of the lamb coming forth from you your mouth, your pen, your lips, and being me we shall all know we shall all be one. Forever we are. Amen.

1:01 PM. Amen
